We are planning to come to Seoul on the 4th. A morning meeting will allow us to fly out that afternoon. Does 9am start time work for you?

Please call if there is anything you need from us. KJ, let me know if you want to talk

Thank you

Chip

Mr. Lutton,

I cannot find a time for a meeting with you next week. As I mentioned, I am available on Nov. 2nd or 4th (I may be able to move the meeting on the 4th).

Best regards,

Seungho Ahn

I wanted to follow up on this so we can lock in our travel plans. Can we meet in Korea next week? If you are in another place, we can travel to where you'll be. Thanks for letting us know. KJ, I'm on cell if you want to talk, though you may be in the US

Thank you for your note. I'd like to take the opportunity for an informal get-together on another occasion.

We need to get next week set. Our plan was to come to Korea for a meeting next Wednesday. After speaking to KJ yesterday, we shifted that plan to Thursday so that everyone on the Samsung side could be available. That works for us and is our preference. Does a meeting next Thursday in Korea still work for you?

Mr. Lutton,

I took a late evening flight from LA to Seoul on Monday. It could have been a good chance to meet for dinner or lunch, if I could stay longer in Silicon Valley.

I won't be in Korea next week. I have another business trip to the U.S. I'm available in Korea on Nov. 2nd. For the next meeting between Apple and Samsung, I will wait for you suggestion regarding the meeting date.

Sincerely,

Seungho Ahn
