ORDER GRANTING NOVELL’S MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM THE AUTOMATIC STAY TO PROCEED WITH THE LAWSUIT

Upon consideration of Novell, Inc.’s Motion for Relief from Automatic Stay to proceed with the District Court Action to (I) Apportion Revenue from SCOSource Licenses and (II) Determine SCO’s Authority to Enter Into SCOSource Licenses, etc. (the “Motion”); and the Court finding that (a) the Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, (b) this is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), (c) venue of these cases is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409, (d) notice of the Motion was sufficient and proper; and upon the record of the hearing held on the Motion; and sufficient cause appearing therefor and for the reasons set forth in the accompanying Memorandum Opinion; it is hereby ORDERED, that pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1), relief from the automatic stay is granted for cause to allow Novell to proceed with the Lawsuit at the convenience of the District Court (as defined in the Memorandum Opinion) on the following issues:

(1) the amount of the royalties to which Novell is entitled from certain SCOSource licenses that the District Court determined to be SVRX Licenses and any additional licenses that are determined to be SVRX Licenses; and (2) whether SCO had the authority to enter into licensing agreements with Microsoft Corporation and Sun Microsystems.

ORDERED, that the automatic stay is not lifted for a determination of the imposition of a constructive trust, an issue which this Court will adjudicate if and when necessary, following the District Court's decision in the Lawsuit.

ORDERED, that Novell shall advise the Court of the trial date when the District Court schedules the trial.
