 ALL ABOUT Reading

Fun with Emojis

What if your child could develop reading fluency and practice reading with expression at the same time? In this colorful (and “emotional”) activity, your child will read practice sentences aloud using a wide range of emotions. Have fun!

Instructions

1. Print and cut out the emoji cards on page 7 (color) or page 8 (black and white). Place the cards in a basket or hat.
2. Choose the sheet of practice sentences on page 3, 4, 5, or 6 that most closely matches your child’s current reading ability or his current level in the All About Reading program. Cut out the practice sentences and place them in a basket or hat.
3. Have your child select an emoji card and a practice sentence. Encourage him to read the sentence aloud using the emotion displayed on the emoji card.
4. Continue choosing sentences and emoji cards to give your child ample practice to read with expression!

Emoji Key

	happy		sad		sleepy
	angry		shocked		scared
	worried		silly		in love
	cool		confused		annoyed
