7-1-S/89

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

1. Supreme Decree No. 008-2019-PCM was issued on 25 January 2019.<sup>1</sup>
2. The Supreme Decree extends the state of emergency for a period of thirty (30) calendar days, with effect from 28 January 2019, over the stretch of the Apurímac-Cusco-Arequipa road corridor that extends from kilometre 130 (Ref. Muyu Orcco sector) to kilometre 160 (Ref. Tiendayoc sector) of national route PE-3SY, which encompasses the district of Colquamarca, Province of Chumbivilcas, Department of Cusco, including the five hundred (500) metres adjacent to either side of the road corridor.
3. During the state of emergency established by the aforementioned Supreme Decree, the rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home and freedom of assembly and movement within the territory, recognized in articles 9, 17, 21 and 12 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, are suspended.
4. The present state of emergency was declared in order to ensure the maintenance of public order and to prevent acts of violence or any criminal offense that could be committed in that area.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
