7-1-S/344

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

1. Supreme Decree No. 164-2019-PCM was issued on 24 September 2019.¹
2. The Supreme Decree declares the state of emergency for a period of sixty (60) calendar days, with effect from 25 September 2019, in the district of Campoverde in the Province of Coronel Portillo, and in the districts of Neshuya and Alexander Von Humboldt in the Province of Padre Abad, Department of Ucayali.
3. The Supreme Decree, in its article 2, extends the state of emergency for a period of sixty (60) calendar days, with effect from 25 September 2019, in the districts of Puerto Inca, Tournavista, Yuyapichis, Codo del Pozuzo and Honoria in the Province of Puerto Inca, Department of Huánuco, and in the districts of Constitución, Palcazú and Puerto Bermúdez in the Province of Oxapampa, Department of Pasco.
4. During the state of emergency established by the aforementioned Supreme Decree, the rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home and freedom of assembly and movement within the territory, recognized in articles 9, 17, 21 and 12 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, are suspended.

5. The present state of emergency was declared in order to ensure the maintenance of public order and to prevent acts of violence or any criminal offense that could be committed in that area.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
