7-1-S/67

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and considering note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to inform of the following:

- Under Supreme Decree No. 051-2020-PCM, issued on 27 March 2020, the state of national emergency declared through Supreme Decree No. 044-2020-PCM and specified through Supreme Decrees No. 045-2020-PCM and No. 046-2020-PCM, has been extended for a period of thirteen (13) calendar days, starting on 31 March 2020.
- During the extension of the state of national emergency, the rights related to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home and freedom of assembly and movement in the territory, as referred to in articles 9, 17, 21 and 12 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, are suspended.
- During the extension of the state of national emergency, all persons are under a mandatory stay-at-home measure from 8 p.m. until 5 a.m., in accordance with article 4 of Supreme Decree No. 044-2020-PCM, as specified through Supreme Decree No. 046-2020-PCM.
- The intervention of the National Police of Peru and the Armed Forces is governed in accordance with Legislative Decree No. 1186 regulating the use of force by the National Police of Peru, Legislative Decree No. 1095 establishing rules for the use of force by the Armed Forces in the national territory, and their regulation.
- The state of emergency was extended to enable the continued application of the exceptional measures to protect the life and health of the population efficiently, as a result of the COVID-19 outbreak.

¹ The text of Supreme Decree No. 051-2020-PCM attached to the notification is on file with the Secretary-General and is available for consultation.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs of the United Nations Secretariat the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
