The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- On 30 November 2020, Supreme Decree No. 184-2020-PCM was issued, extending for a period of 31 calendar days, from 1 December 2020 until 30 December 2020, the state of national emergency declared through Supreme Decree No. 044-2020-PCM, temporarily extended through Supreme Decrees No. 051-2020-PCM, No. 064-2020-PCM, No. 075-2020-PCM, No. 083-2020-PCM, No. 094-2020-PCM, No. 116-2020-PCM, No. 135-2020-PCM, No. 146-2020-PCM, No. 156-2020-PCM and No. 174-2020-PCM; and specified or amended through Supreme Decrees No. 045-2020-PCM, No. 046-2020-PCM, No. 051-2020-PCM, No. 053-2020-PCM, No. 057-2020-PCM, No. 058-2020-PCM, No. 061-2020-PCM, No. 063-2020-PCM, No. 064-2020-PCM, No. 068-2020-PCM, No. 072-2020-PCM, No. 083-2020-PCM, No. 094-2020-PCM, No. 116-2020-PCM, No. 129-2020-PCM, No. 135-2020-PCM, No. 139-2020-PCM, No. 146-2020-PCM, No. 151-2020-PCM, No. 156-2020-PCM, No. 162-2020-PCM, No. 165-2020-PCM, No. 170-2020-PCM, No. 177-2020-PCM, No. 178-2020-PCM and No. 180-2020-PCM, due to the serious circumstances affecting the life of the nation as a result of COVID-19.
- During the extension of the state of national emergency, the rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home and freedom of assembly and movement in the territory, included in articles 9, 17, 21 and 12 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, remain suspended.

¹ The text of Supreme Decree No. 184-2020-PCM of the Republic of Peru attached to the notification is on file with the Secretary-General and is available for consultation.

- The national police of Peru and the armed forces are charged with enforcing the measures, while ensuring that there are no restrictions on other rights that are not suspended during the state of emergency and, in particular, those intended to protect the life and integrity of the population, in accordance with Legislative Decree No. 1186 regulating the use of force by the national police of Peru and Legislative Decree No. 1095 establishing rules for the use of force by the armed forces in the national territory. They also oversee the restriction of the exercise of the freedom of movement of persons throughout the country using different means of transport, such as private vehicles, public transport and water transport, subject to the resumption of economic activities in accordance with the corresponding regulations.
- The state of emergency has been extended to enable the continued application of the exceptional measures to protect the life and health of the population efficiently, by reducing the possibility of an increase in the number of persons affected by COVID-19.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs of the United Nations Secretariat the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
