Note No. 4-2-94/2022

The Permanent Mission of Ecuador to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and has the honour to refer to Note No. 4-2-91/2022 of 30 June 2022, notifying the issuance of Executive Decree No. 463 of 29 June 2022 by which a state of emergency was declared due to serious internal unrest in the provinces of Azuay, Imbabura, Sucumbíos and Orellana.

In this regard, the Permanent Mission of Ecuador to the United Nations hereby notifies the issuance of Executive Decree No. 469 of 1 July 2022, by which the Constitutional President of the Republic, Guillermo Lasso Mendoza, decrees the end of the curfew in the provinces of Azuay, Sucumbíos and Orellana, and, therefore, repeals Articles 7 and 8 of Executive Decree No. 463.

In accordance with Article 2 of the aforementioned Executive Decree, it is requested that the cessation of the suspension of the exercise of the right of movement in these provinces be duly notified.

In accordance with article 4, paragraph 3, of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the Permanent Mission of Ecuador to the United Nations respectfully requests the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, to inform all the States parties to the Covenant accordingly.

<sup>2</sup> The text of Executive Decree No. 469 of 1 July 2022 of the Republic of Ecuador attached to the notification is on file with the Secretary-General and is available for consultation.

The Permanent Mission of Ecuador to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the assurances of its highest consideration.
