7-1-S/2022/160

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and with article 27 of the American Convention on Human Rights, has the honour to report the following:

1. By Supreme Decree No. 139–2022-PCM, dated 12 December 2022, the Government of Peru declared a state of national emergency for a period of sixty (60) calendar days, in the provinces of Abancay, Andahuaylas, Chincheros, Grau, Cotabambas, Antabamba and Aymaraes, the department of Apurimac, in view of the serious circumstances affecting the life of the nation as a result of various social conflicts at the national level that have led to acts of violence and vandalism against public and private institutions and to attacks on the personal safety of citizens and officials.
2. During state of emergency, the constitutional rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home, and freedom of assembly and movement in the territory, included in paragraphs 9, 11, 12 and 24 f) of article 2 of the Peruvian Constitution, as well as in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, remain suspended.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs of the United Nations Secretariat the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
