7-1-S/2022/44

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- On 27 February 2022, Supreme Decree No. 016-2022-PCM was issued declaring for a period of thirty-two (32) calendar days, from 28 February 2022, the state of national emergency, due to the circumstances affecting people's lives and health as a result of COVID-19.
- On 26 March 2022, Supreme Decree No. 030-2022-PCM was issued, extending for a period of thirty (30) calendar days, from 1 April 2022, the state of national emergency declared through Supreme Decree No. 016-2022-PCM, to protect the life and health of the population from the spread of COVID-19.
- During the declaration and the extension of the state of national emergency, the rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home, and freedom of assembly and movement in the territory, included in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, remain suspended.
- The National Police of Peru, with the support of the Armed Forces, shall ensure strict compliance with the provisions issued within the framework of the state of national emergency, in accordance with regulations in force.

¹ The texts of Supreme Decrees No. 016-2022-PCM and No. 030-2022-PCM of the Republic of Peru attached to the notification are on file with the Secretary-General and are available for consultation.

- The state of emergency has been extended to establish new measures to restore social coexistence without neglecting the control and prevention of transmission, in order to protect the fundamental rights to life and health of Peruvians, considering the current context due to the consequences of the different COVID-19 variants and the progress of the vaccination process.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs of the United Nations Secretariat the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
