The above action was effected on 17 April 2023.

(Translation) (Original: Spanish)

7-1-S/2023/123

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- Through Supreme Decree No. 048-2023-PCM, dated 9 April 2023, the Government of Peru extended the state of emergency declared in the districts of Puerto Inca, Tournavista, Yuyapichis and Codo del Pozuzo in the province of Puerto Inca in the department of Huánuco; in the districts of Constitución and Puerto Bermúdez in the province of Oxapampa in the department of Pasco; and in the district of Sepahua in the province of Atalaya in the department of Ucayali; and declared a state of emergency in the district of Palcazú in the province of Oxapampa in the department of Pasco, for a period of 60 calendar days starting on 11 April 2023.
- The measure was extended to more effectively combat criminal organizations involved in illicit drug trafficking, illegal mining, kidnapping, extortion and illegal logging in those areas. During the state of emergency, the constitutional rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home and freedom of assembly and movement in the territory, included in articles 9, 17, 21 and 12 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, are suspended.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
