7-1-S/2023/37

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- By Supreme Decree No. 013-2023-PCM, dated 24 January 2023, the Government of Peru has extended the mandatory stay-at-home measure in the Puno Department for all persons from 8 p.m. to 4 a.m., for a term of 10 calendar days beginning on 25 January 2023, following the state of national emergency declared through Supreme Decree No. 09-2023-PCM.
- The measure has been extended owing to the escalation in the social conflict in the aforementioned jurisdiction, where acts of violence and vandalism against public and private institutions continue to occur, in addition to attacks on the personal safety of citizens and authorities.
- During the state of national emergency, the constitutional rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home, and freedom of assembly and movement in the territory, included in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, are suspended.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
