7-1-S/2023/225

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- By Supreme Decree No. 106-2023-PCM, dated 24 September 2023, the Government of Peru extended the state of emergency declared by Supreme Decree No. 055-2023-PCM of 27 April 2023 in the province of Zarumilla in the department of Tumbes; in districts of the provinces of Sullana, Ayabaca and Huancabamba in the department of Piura; in districts of the province of San Ignacio in the department of Cajamarca; in the district of El Cenepa in the province of Condorcanqui in the department of Amazonas; in the district of Torres Causana of the province of Maynas in the department of Loreto; in the province of Tahuamanu in the department of Madre de Dios and in districts of the provinces of Tarata and Tacna in the department of Tacna, for a period of 60 calendar days, starting on 25 September 2023.
- The measure was declared to re-establish internal order in the aforementioned areas in view of the increase in public insecurity and in crimes such as illicit drug trafficking, trafficking in persons and illegal mining. During the state of emergency, the constitutional rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home and freedom of assembly and movement in the territory, included in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, are suspended.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
