(Translation) (Original: Spanish)

7-1-S/2023/259

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- By Supreme Decree No. 127-2023-PCM, dated 22 November 2023, the Government of Peru extended the state of emergency declared by Supreme Decree No. 055-2023-PCM of 27 April 2023 in the province of Zarumilla in the department of Tumbes; in district of Lancones of the province of Sullana, in the districts of Suyo, Jilili and Ayabaca in the department of Ayabaca and in the district of El Carmen de la Frontera in the province of Huancabamba in the department of Piura; in district of Tarata in the province of Tarata and in the districts of Palca, Tacna and La Yarada-Los Palos in the province of Tacna in the department of Tacna, for a period of 60 calendar days, starting on 24 November 2023.
- The measure was declared to continue to ensure the implementation of the actions that guarantee the preservation and restoration of internal order in the aforementioned areas, in view of the increase in public insecurity and in crimes such as illicit drug trafficking, trafficking in persons and illegal mining, among others. During the state of emergency, the constitutional rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home and freedom of assembly and movement in the territory, included in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, are suspended.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
