INTERNATIONAL COVENANT ON CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS
NEW YORK, 16 DECEMBER 1966

PERU: NOTIFICATION UNDER ARTICLE 4 (3)¹

The Secretary-General of the United Nations, acting in his capacity as depositary, communicates the following:

The above action was effected on 19 December 2023.

(Translation) (Original: Spanish)

7-1-S/2023/265

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- By Supreme Decree No. 137-2023-PCM, published on 6 December 2023, the Government of Peru declared the state of national emergency in the national road network and on the departmental and regional road networks, including the five hundred (500) metres adjacent to each side of these aforementioned road networks, for a period of thirty (30) calendar days.
- The reason for the declaration of the state of emergency is to establish and/or preserve internal order, as well as to guarantee the constitutional rights of the population, against violent acts that would be carried out on these roads. During the state of emergency, the constitutional rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home, and freedom of assembly and movement in the territory, included in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, are suspended.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
