

Urban October is a month of exciting meetings, discussions, and events focusing the world's attention on urban issues and sustainable development. Individuals, organizations, cities, communities, and governments at every level are encouraged to take part in activities that highlight the challenges and solutions relating to cities, towns, and communities. Urban October starts with World Habitat Day and ends with World Cities Day.

In 2024, the World Habitat Day, will take place under the theme Engaging youth to create a better urban future and World Cities Day will focus on Youth leading climate and local action for cities.

World Habitat Day

7 October 2024

World Habitat Day is held on the first Monday of October each year and launches Urban October. The day centers around the global observance, which is held in a different country each year with keynote speakers and roundtable discussions focused on a specific theme. World Habitat Day was first celebrated in 1986 in Nairobi, Kenya, with the theme 'Shelter is my right'.

On 7 October 2024, the Global Observance of World Habitat Day, under the theme Engaging youth to create a better urban future, it will focus on how we can engage the new generation in planning their urban present and future through participatory processes and local leadership opportunities.

World Cities Day

31 October 2024

World Cities Day brings Urban October to an end on 31 October and was first celebrated in 2014. As with World Habitat Day, a global observance is held in a different city each year and the day focuses on a specific theme.

This year's global observance is planned to take place on 31 October 2024 under the theme Youth leading climate and local action for cities, young people advocate for bolder steps and actions to tackle climate crisis in our cities. Young people advocate for bolder steps and actions to tackle climate crisis in our cities. It will draw attention on how we can capture these bold ideas and ambitious targets and turn them into achievements.

Youth leading climate and local action for cities

Join us and organize virtual, physical and hybrid activities

We are encouraging national governments, local authorities, the private sector, and other urban practitioners to mark the day by organizing events through workshops or webinars, panel discussions and interviews. The following are suggested events that can be held.

Urban Breakfast

An Urban Breakfast aims to create an inspiring dialogue to reflect on challenges facing sustainable urban development, considering the Sustainable Development Goals and the New Urban Agenda. It can be held at any time.

Urban Breakfasts focus on introducing and discussing regional urban perspectives, with the participation of key speakers from national governments, local authorities, academia, civil society, the private sector, and other stakeholders.

The Urban Journalism Academy

The Urban Journalism Academy (UJA) brings together media professionals who are interested or involved in urban development. They help strengthen journalists' capacity to analyze the overall process of urbanization by sharing with them substantive knowledge about the main issues of planning and management of cities, as well as technical expertise in urban data and indicators. The aim is to create a network of urban journalists that work together in advocating principles of the New Urban Agenda.
