Subject: Philips Electronics' Intellectual Property Rights Relating to the IEEE P802.11a (OFDM), Published Standard.

Dear Mr. Kerry,

This letter is to confirm to the IEEE that Philips Electronics is not intending to waive its patent rights with respect to the referenced standard. In particular, there may be one or more patents of Philips Electronics directed to the published standard and Philips Electronics is willing to consider licensing of certain patents in its portfolio which are directed to and necessary for the implementation and practice of the referenced OFDM Technology, on a fair, reasonable and non-discriminatory terms and conditions to qualified applicants in accordance with IEEE patent policy.

This letter does not grant any right to the IEEE with respect to the Philips Electronics' copyrights or other intellectual property rights that cover contributions to the proposed standard, other than provided above. However, any party interested in the license above may contact Kursat Kimyacioglu in writing, by phone or by facsimile at the address given below for contacting the Philips Electronics' Intellectual Property Department.

Yours Truly,

Kursat Kimyacioglu
Mgr./PL-WiCom
