To Whom It May Concern:

We have recently become aware of a typo in a Letter of Assurance for Essential Patents for the 802.11g Standard sent to you by Caroline Liott on January 24, 2003 (attached for reference). We had listed US Pending Patent Application Number 09/224,695 in Appendix A of that letter. The correct number is 09/224,696. That application was subsequently issued as US Patent # 6,563,786.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. If this information needs to be sent to anyone else please get back to me immediately.

Regards,

Appendix ATo Whom It May Concern:

At this time, Agere Systems owns the following issued United States patents and pending patent applications that include one or more claims that may be required to practice the draft standard for IEEE 802.11g (Further Higher-Speed Physical Layer Extension in the 2.4 GHz Band). Agere owns a large portfolio of patents, including a large number of patents in the Wireless Local Area Network space, and there may be other patents and patent applications in our patent portfolio that are required to meet the 802.11g standard in addition to the ones listed below.

U.S. Issued Patents	U.S. Pending Patent Applications
5,151,920	09/224,696 (corresponds to EP patent application 929,172)
5,546,420	10/092,295 (corresponds to EP patent application 615,363)
5,706,428
5,751,739
5,862,182
6,404,732
6,452,958

Agere Systems will make available on a non-exclusive basis, under reasonable terms and conditions that are nondiscriminatory, licenses to patents and patent applications owned by Agere to the extent required to practice the IEEE 802.11g standard, subject to receipt by Agere of reciprocal licenses from the licensee.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact Caroline Lott by e-mail (cliott@agere.com) or telephone (610-712-3474).
