The Peggy Browning Fund to Honor AAA Vice President Kenneth Egger

NEW YORK, N.Y.—February 1, 2019—The Peggy Browning Fund, a nonprofit established in memory of prominent labor attorney Margaret A. Browning, will honor American Arbitration Association® (AAA®) Vice President Kenneth Egger for his passion and dedication to the field of labor relations.

Egger, who in previous years has helped to plan the event, will accept the Peggy Browning Award at the fund's Philadelphia awards reception on March 7.

"I am deeply honored to be recognized by the Peggy Browning Fund," Egger said. "For more than 20 years, the fund has helped to educate and lift up future leaders in labor law. I couldn't be more proud to support this organization and further its important mission."

During his more than 35 years with the AAA, Egger has been an active member of the labor/management community and has administered hundreds of elections annually. Throughout his career, he has advocated for alternative dispute resolution methods and neutral election services for unions, associations, corporations, and colleges in the United States. Egger has also helped shape public policy by participating in election reform discussions in Washington, D.C.
