13 access to a particular portion of that program for the sole 14 purpose of identifying and analyzing those elements of the 15 program that are necessary to achieve interoperability of 16 an independently created computer program with other 17 programs, and that have not previously been readily avail-18 able to the person engaging in the circumvention, to the 19 extent any such acts of identification and analysis do not 20 constitute infringement under this title.

21 “(h) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections
22 1201(a)(2) and (b), a person may develop and employ 23 technological means to circumvent for the identification

7 under subsection (h), may be made available to others if 8 the person referred to in subsections (g) or (h) provides

11 computer program with other programs, and to the extent 12 that doing so does not constitute infringement under this 13 title, or violate applicable law other than this title.

14 “(j) For purposes of subsections (g), (h) and (i), the 15 term “interoperability” means the ability of computer pro-

19 “(k) In applying subsection (a) to a component or 20 part, the court may consider the necessity for its intended 21 and actual incorporation in a technology, product, service

4 award to the complaining party the actual damages
5 suffered by the party as a result of the violation, 6 and any profits of the violator that are attributable 7 to the violation and are not taken into account in 8 computing the actual damages, if the complaining 9 party elects such damages at any time before final 10 judgment is entered.

11 “(3) STATUTORY DAMAGES.—

12 “(A) At any time before final judgment is

1 “(4) REPEATED VIOLATIONS.—In any case in 2 which the injured party sustains the burden of prov-
3 ing, and the court finds, that a person has violated 4 section 1201 or 1202 within three years after a final 5 judgment was entered against the person for another 6 such violation, the court may increase the award of 7 damages up to triple the amount that would other-8 wise be awarded, as the court considers just.

9 “(5) INNOCENT VIOLATIONS.—

10 “(A) IN GENERAL.—The court in its dis-11 cretion may reduce or remit the total award of 12 damages in any case in which the violator sus-

16 violation.

17 “(B) NONPROFIT LIBRARY, ARCHIVES, OR 18 EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.—In the case of a 19 nonprofit library, archives, or educational insti-

23 ing, and the court finds, that the library, ar-24 chives, or educational institution was not aware

1 and had no reason to believe that its acts con-
2 stituted a violation.

 12 fringement of copyright

13 “(a) DIGITAL NETWORK COMMUNICATIONS.—A serv-
 14 ice provider shall not be liable for monetary relief, or ex-15 cept as provided in subsection (i) for injunctive or other 16 equitable relief, for infringement for the provider’s trans-
 17 mitting, routing, or providing connections for, material 18 through a system or network controlled or operated by or 19 for the service provider, or the intermediate and transient 20 storage of such material in the course of such transmit-21 ting, routing or providing connections, if—

22 “(1) it was initiated by or at the direction of a 23 person other than the service provider;

1 “(2) it is carried out through an automatic
2 technical process without selection of such material
3 by the service provider;

4 “(3) the service provider does not select the re-
5 cipients of such material except as an automatic re-6 sponse to the request of another;

7 “(4) no such copy of such material made by the 8 service provider is maintained on the system or net-
9 work in a manner ordinarily accessible to anyone 10 other than anticipated recipients, and no such copy 11 is maintained on the system or network in a manner 12 ordinarily accessible to the anticipated recipients for 13 a longer period than is reasonably necessary for the 14 communication; and

15 “(5) the material is transmitted without modi-
16 fication to its content.

17 “(b) SYSTEM CACHING.—A service provider shall not 18 be liable for monetary relief, or except as provided in sub-19 section (i) for injunctive or other equitable relief, for in-20 fringement for the intermediate and temporary storage of 21 material on the system or network controlled or operated 22 by or for the service provider, where (i) such material is 23 made available online by a person other than such service
24 provider, (ii) such material is transmitted from the person
25 described in clause (i) through such system or network

1 to someone other than that person at the direction of such 2 other person, and (iii) the storage is carried out through 3 an automatic technical process for the purpose of making 4 such material available to users of such system or network 5 who subsequently request access to that material from the 6 person described in clause (i), provided that:

7 “(1) such material is transmitted to such subse-8 quent users without modification to its content from 9 the manner in which the material otherwise was 10 transmitted from the person described in clause (i);

11 “(2) such service provider complies with rules
12 concerning the refreshing, reloading or other updat-
13 ing of such material when specified by the person 14 making that material available online in accordance 15 with an accepted industry standard data commu-
16 nications protocol for the system or network through 17 which that person makes the material available; pro-18 vided that the rules are not used by the person de-19 scribed in clause (i) to prevent or unreasonably im-
20 pair such intermediate storage;

21 “(3) such service provider does not interfere 22 with the ability of technology associated with such 23 material that returns to the person described in 24 clause (i) the information that would have been 25 available to such person if such material had been

1 obtained by such subsequent users directly from 2 such person, provided that such technology—

3 “(A) does not significantly interfere with 4 the performance of the provider’s system or 5 network or with the intermediate storage of the 6 material;

7 “(B) is consistent with accepted industry 8 standard communications protocols; and 9 “(C) does not extract information from the 10 provider’s system or network other than the in-11 formation that would have been available to 12 such person if such material had been accessed 13 by such users directly from such person;

14 “(4) either—

15 “(A) the person described in clause (i)
16 does not currently condition access to such ma-17 terial; or

18 “(B) if access to such material is so condi-
19 tioned by such person, by a current individual 20 pre-condition, such as a pre-condition based on 21 payment of a fee, or provision of a password or 22 other information, the service provider permits
23 access to the stored material in significant part 24 only to users of its system or network that have

1 been so authorized and only in accordance with 2 those conditions; and

3 “(5) if the person described in clause (i) makes 4 that material available online without the authoriza-
5 tion of the copyright owner, then the service provider
6 responds expeditiously to remove, or disable access 7 to, the material that is claimed to be infringing upon 8 notification of claimed infringements described in 9 subsection (c)(3); provided that the material has 10 previously been removed from the originating site, 11 and the party giving the notification includes in the 12 notification a statement confirming that such mate-
13 rial has been removed or access to it has been dis-
14 abled or ordered to be removed or have access dis-
15 abled.

16 “(c) INFORMATION STORED ON SERVICE PROVID-
17 ERS.—

18 “(1) IN GENERAL.—A service provider shall not 19 be liable for monetary relief, or except as provided 20 in subsection (i) for injunctive or other equitable re-
21 lief, for infringement for the storage at the direction 22 of a user of material that resides on a system or net-
23 work controlled or operated by or for the service pro-
24 vider, if the service provider—

1 “(A)(i) does not have actual knowledge
2 that the material or activity is infringing,

3 “(ii) in the absence of such actual knowl-
4 edge, is not aware of facts or circumstances 5 from which infringing activity is apparent, or

6 “(iii) if upon obtaining such knowledge or 7 awareness, the service provider acts expedi-
8 tiously to remove or disable access to, the mate-
9 rial;

10 “(B) does not receive a financial benefit di-11 rectly attributable to the infringing activity, 12 where the service provider has the right and 13 ability to control such activity; and 14 “(C) in the instance of a notification of 15 claimed infringement as described in paragraph

16 (3), responds expeditiously to remove, or disable 17 access to, the material that is claimed to be in-18 fringing or to be the subject of infringing activ-
19 ity.

20 “(2) DESIGNATED AGENT.—The limitations on 21 liability established in this subsection apply only if 22 the service provider has designated an agent to re-23 ceive notifications of claimed infringement described 24 in paragraph (3), by substantially making the name, 25 address, phone number, electronic mail address of

1 such agent, and other contact information deemed 2 appropriate by the Register of Copyrights, available 3 through its service, including on its website, and by 4 providing such information to the Copyright Office.
5 The Register of Copyrights shall maintain a current 6 directory of agents available to the public for inspec-
7 tion, including through the Internet, in both elec-
8 tronic and hard copy formats.

9 “(3) ELEMENTS OF NOTIFICATION.—

10 “(A) To be effective under this subsection,
11 a notification of claimed infringement means 12 any written communication provided to the 13 service provider’s designated agent that includes 14 substantially the following:

15 “(i) a physical or electronic signature 16 of a person authorized to act on behalf of 17 the owner of an exclusive right that is al-
18 legedly infringed;

19 “(ii) identification of the copyrighted 20 work claimed to have been infringed, or, if 21 multiple such works at a single online site
22 are covered by a single notification, a rep-
23 resentative list of such works at that site;

24 “(iii) identification of the material
25 that is claimed to be infringing or to be

1 the subject of infringing activity that is to 2 be removed or access to which is to be dis-
3 abled, and information reasonably suffi-
4 cient to permit the service provider to lo-
5 cate the material;

6 “(iv) information reasonably sufficient
7 to permit the service provider to contact
8 the complaining party, such as an address,
9 telephone number, and, if available an elec-
10 tronic mail address at which the complain-
11 ing party may be contacted;

12 “(v) a statement that the complaining 13 party has a good faith belief that use of 14 the material in the manner complained of 15 is not authorized by the copyright owner, 16 or its agent, or the law; and 17 “(vi) a statement that the information 18 in the notification is accurate, and under 19 penalty of perjury, that the complaining

20 party has the authority to enforce the own-21 er’s rights that are claimed to be infringed.

22 “(B) A notification from the copyright 23 owner or from a person authorized to act on be-24 half of the copyright owner that fails substan-25 tially to conform to the provisions of paragraph

1 (3)(A) shall not be considered under paragraph
2 (1)(A) in determining whether a service pro-
3 vider has actual knowledge or is aware of facts
4 or circumstances from which infringing activity
5 is apparent, provided that the provider prompt-6 ly attempts to contact the complaining party or 7 takes other reasonable steps to assist in the re-8 ceipt of notice under paragraph (3)(A) when 9 the notice is provided to the service provider’s 10 designated agent and substantially satisfies the 11 provisions of subparagraphs (3)(A)(ii), (iii), and 12 (iv).

13 “(d) INFORMATION LOCATION TOOLS.—A service 14 provider shall not be liable for monetary relief, or except 15 as provided in subsection (i) for injunctive or other equi-16 table relief, for infringement for the provider referring or 17 linking users to an online location containing infringing 18 material or activity by using information location tools, in-19 cluding a directory, index, reference, pointer or hypertext
20 link, if the provider—

21 “(1) does not have actual knowledge that the 22 material or activity is infringing or, in the absence 23 of such actual knowledge, is not aware of facts or 24 circumstances from which infringing activity is ap-25 parent;

1 “(2) does not receive a financial benefit directly 2 attributable to the infringing activity, where the 3 service provider has the right and ability to control 4 such activity; and

5 “(3) responds expeditiously to remove or disable
6 the reference or link upon notification of claimed in-7 fringement as described in subsection (c)(3); pro-8 vided that for the purposes of this paragraph, the 9 element in subsection (c)(3)(A)(iii) shall be identi-
10 fication of the reference or link, to material or activ-
11 ity claimed to be infringing, that is to be removed 12 or access to which is to be disabled, and information
13 reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider
14 to locate such reference or link.

15 “(e) MISREPRESENTATIONS.—Any person who know-16 ingly materially misrepresents under this section (1) that 17 material or activity is infringing, or (2) that material or 18 activity was removed or disabled by mistake or 19 misidentification, shall be liable for any damages, includ-20 ing costs and attorneys’ fees, incurred by the alleged in-21 fringer, by any copyright owner or copyright owner’s au-
22 thorized licensee, or by the service provider, who is injured
23 by such misrepresentation, as the result of the service pro-24 vider relying upon such misrepresentation in removing or 25 disabling access to the material or activity claimed to be

1 infringing, or in replacing the removed material or ceasing
2 to disable access to it.

3 “(f) REPLACEMENT OF REMOVED OR DISABLED MA-
4 TERIAL AND LIMITATION ON OTHER LIABILITY.—

5 “(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this sub-6 section, a service provider shall not be liable to any 7 person for any claim based on the service provider’s 8 good faith disabling of access to, or removal of, ma-9 terial or activity claimed to be infringing or based on 10 facts or circumstances from which infringing activity 11 is apparent, regardless of whether the material or 12 activity is ultimately determined to be infringing.

13 “(2) Paragraph (1) of this subsection shall not 14 apply with respect to material residing at the direc-
15 tion of a subscriber of the service provider on a sys-16 tem or network controlled or operated by or for the 17 service provider that is removed, or to which access 18 is disabled by the service provider pursuant to a no-19 tice provided under subsection (c)(1)(C), unless the 20 service provider—

21 “(A) takes reasonable steps promptly to 22 notify the subscriber that it has removed or dis-
23 abled access to the material;

24 “(B) upon receipt of a counter notice as 25 described in paragraph (3), promptly provides

1 the person who provided the notice under sub-
2 section (c)(1)(C) with a copy of the counter no-
3 tice, and informs such person that it will re-
4 place the removed material or cease disabling 5 access to it in ten business days; and 6 “(C) replaces the removed material and 7 ceases disabling access to it not less than ten,

8 nor more than fourteen, business days following 9 receipt of the counter notice, unless its des-10 ignated agent first receives notice from the per-11 son who submitted the notification under sub-12 section (c)(1)(C) that such person has filed an 13 action seeking a court order to restrain the sub-14 scriber from engaging in infringing activity re-
15 lating to the material on the service provider’s 16 system or network.

17 “(3) To be effective under this subsection, a 18 counter notification means any written communica-
19 tion provided to the service provider’s designated 20 agent that includes substantially the following:

21 “(A) a physical or electronic signature of 22 the subscriber;

23 “(B) identification of the material that has 24 been removed or to which access has been dis-
25 abled and the location at which such material

1 appeared before it was removed or access was 2 disabled;

3 “(C) a statement under penalty of perjury 4 that the subscriber has a good faith belief that 5 the material was removed or disabled as a re-6 sult of mistake or misidentification of the mate-
7 rial to be removed or disabled;

8 “(D) the subscriber’s name, address and 9 telephone number, and a statement that the 10 subscriber consents to the jurisdiction of Fed-11 eral Court for the judicial district in which the 12 address is located, or if the subscriber’s address 13 is outside of the United States, for any judicial 14 district in which the service provider may be 15 found, and that the subscriber will accept serv-
16 ice of process from the person who provided no-17 tice under subsection (c)(1)(C) or agent of such 18 person.

19 “(4) A service provider’s compliance with para-20 graph (2) shall not subject the service provider to li-21 ability for copyright infringement with respect to the 22 material identified in the notice provided under sub-23 section (c)(1)(C).

24 “(g) IDENTIFICATION OF DIRECT INFRINGER.—The 25 copyright owner or a person authorized to act on the own-

1 er’s behalf may request an order for release of identifica-
2 tion of an alleged infringer by filing (i) a copy of a notifi-
3 cation described in subsection (c)(3)(A), including a pro-
4 posed order, and (ii) a sworn declaration that the purpose
5 of the order is to obtain the identity of an alleged infringer
6 and that such information will only be used for the pur-
7 pose of this title, with the clerk of any United States dis-
8 trict court. The order shall authorize and order the service
9 provider receiving the notification to disclose expeditiously 10 to the copyright owner or person authorized by the copy-11 right owner information sufficient to identify the alleged 12 direct infringer of the material described in the notifica-
13 tion to the extent such information is available to the serv-14 ice provider. The order shall be expeditiously issued if the 15 accompanying notification satisfies the provisions of sub-16 section (c)(3)(A) and the accompanying declaration is 17 properly executed. Upon receipt of the order, either ac-
18 companying or subsequent to the receipt of a notification 19 described in subsection (c)(3)(A), a service provider shall 20 expeditiously give to the copyright owner or person author-21 ized by the copyright owner the information required by 22 the order, notwithstanding any other provision of law and 23 regardless of whether the service provider responds to the 24 notification.

25 “(h) CONDITIONS FOR ELIGIBILITY.—

1 “(1) ACCOMMODATION OF TECHNOLOGY.—The 2 limitations on liability established by this section 3 shall apply only if the service provider—

4 “(A) has adopted and reasonably imple-
5 mented, and informs subscribers of the service 6 of, a policy for the termination of subscribers of 7 the service who are repeat infringers; and 8 “(B) accommodates and does not interfere 9 with standard technical measures as defined in 10 this subsection.

11 “(2) DEFINITION.—As used in this section, 12 “standard technical measures” are technical meas-13 ures, used by copyright owners to identify or protect 14 copyrighted works, that—

15 “(A) have been developed pursuant to a 16 broad consensus of copyright owners and serv-17 ice providers in an open, fair, voluntary, multi-18 industry standards process;

19 “(B) are available to any person on rea-20 sonable and nondiscriminatory terms; and 21 “(C) do not impose substantial costs on 22 service providers or substantial burdens on their 23 systems or networks.

24 “(i) INJUNCTIONS.—The following rules shall apply 25 in the case of any application for an injunction under sec-

1 tion 502 against a service provider that is not subject to 2 monetary remedies by operation of this section:

3 “(1) SCOPE OF RELIEF.—

4 “(A) With respect to conduct other than 5 that which qualifies for the limitation on rem-
6 edies as set forth in subsection (a), the court 7 may only grant injunctive relief with respect to 8 a service provider in one or more of the follow-9 ing forms:

10 “(i) an order restraining it from pro-
11 viding access to infringing material or ac-12 tivity residing at a particular online site on 13 the provider’s system or network;

14 “(ii) an order restraining it from pro-
15 viding access to an identified subscriber of 16 the service provider’s system or network
17 who is engaging in infringing activity by 18 terminating the specified accounts of such 19 subscriber; or

20 “(iii) such other injunctive remedies
21 as the court may consider necessary to pre-
22 vent or restrain infringement of specified
23 copyrighted material at a particular online 24 location, provided that such remedies are 25 the least burdensome to the service pro-

1 vider that are comparably effective for that 2 purpose.

3 “(B) If the service provider qualifies for 4 the limitation on remedies described in sub-
5 section (a), the court may only grant injunctive 6 relief in one or both of the following forms:

7 “(i) an order restraining it from pro-
8 viding access to an identified subscriber of
9 the service provider’s system or network
10 who is using the provider’s service to en-
11 gage in infringing activity by terminating
12 the specified accounts of such subscriber; 13 or

14 “(ii) an order restraining it from pro-
15 viding access, by taking specified reason-16 able steps to block access, to a specific,
17 identified, foreign online location.

18 “(2) CONSIDERATIONS.—The court, in consid-19 ering the relevant criteria for injunctive relief under 20 applicable law, shall consider:

21 “(A) whether such an injunction, either
22 alone or in combination with other such injunc-
23 tions issued against the same service provider
24 under this subsection, would significantly bur-

1 den either the provider or the operation of the 2 provider's system or network;

3 “(B) the magnitude of the harm likely to 4 be suffered by the copyright owner in the digi-
5 tal network environment if steps are not taken 6 to prevent or restrain the infringement;

7 “(C) whether implementation of such an 8 injunction would be technically feasible and ef-9 fective, and would not interfere with access to 10 noninfringing material at other online locations; 11 and

12 “(D) whether other less burdensome and 13 comparably effective means of preventing or re-14 straining access to the infringing material are 15 available.

16 “(3) NOTICE AND EX PARTE ORDERS.—Injunc-
17 tive relief under this subsection shall not be available
18 without notice to the service provider and an oppor-
19 tunity for such provider to appear, except for orders
20 ensuring the preservation of evidence or other orders
21 having no material adverse effect on the operation 22 of the service provider's communications network.

23 “(j) DEFINITIONS.—

24 “(1)(A) As used in subsection (a), the term 25 “service provider” means an entity offering the

1 transmission, routing or providing of connections for 2 digital online communications, between or among
