4 (a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the 5 "Intellectual Property Protection Restoration Act of 6 2001".

7 (b) REFERENCES.—Any reference in this Act to the 8 Trademark Act of 1946 shall be a reference to the Act 9 entitled "An Act to provide for the registration and protec10 tion of trade-marks used in commerce, to carry out the provisions of certain international conventions, and for other purposes", approved July 5, 1946 (15 U.S.C. 1051 et seq.).

4 SEC. 2. PURPOSES.

5 The purposes of this Act are to—

6 (1) help eliminate the unfair commercial advan-7 tage that States and their instrumentalities now 8 hold in the Federal intellectual property system be-9 cause of their ability to obtain protection under the 10 United States patent, copyright, and trademark laws 11 while remaining exempt from liability for infringing 12 the rights of others;

(2) promote technological innovation and artistic creation in furtherance of the policies underlying Federal laws and international treaties relating to intellectual property;

17 (3) reaffirm the availability of prospective relief 18 against State officials who are violating or who 19 threaten to violate Federal intellectual property 20 laws; and

(4) abrogate State sovereign immunity in cases where States or their instrumentalities, officers, or employees violate the United States Constitution by infringing Federal intellectual property.

3 (a) AMENDMENT TO PATENT LAW.—Section 287 of 4 title 35, United States Code, is amended by adding at the 5 end the following:

6 "(d)(1) No remedies under section 284 or 289 shall 7 be awarded in any civil action brought under this title for 8 infringement of a patent issued on or after January 1, 9 2002, if a State or State instrumentality is or was at any 10 time the legal or beneficial owner of such patent, except 11 upon proof that—

12 "(A) on or before the date the infringement 13 commenced or January 1, 2004, whichever is later, 14 the State has waived its immunity, under the elev-15 enth amendment of the United States Constitution 16 and under any other doctrine of sovereign immunity, 17 from suit in Federal court brought against the State 18 or any of its instrumentalities, for any infringement 19 of intellectual property protected under Federal law; 20 and 21 "(B) such waiver was made in accordance with 22 the constitution and laws of the State, and remains 23 effective.

24 "(2) The limitation on remedies under paragraph (1)25 shall not apply with respect to a patent if—

"(A) the limitation would materially and ad versely affect a legitimate contract-based expectation in existence before January 1, 2002; or 4 "(B) the party seeking remedies was a bona 5 fide purchaser for value of the patent, and, at the 6 time of the purchase, did not know and was reason7 ably without cause to believe that a State or State 8 instrumentality was once the legal or beneficial 9 owner of the patent.

"(3) The limitation on remedies under paragraph (1) may be raised at any point in a proceeding, through the conclusion of the action. If raised before January 1, 2004, the court may stay the proceeding for a reasonable time, but not later than January 1, 2004, to afford the State an opportunity to waive its immunity as provided in paragraph (1).".

17 (b) AMENDMENT TO COPYRIGHT LAW.—Section 504 18 of title 17, United States Code, is amended by adding at 19 the end the following:

20 "(e) LIMITATION ON REMEDIES IN CERTAIN21 CASES.—

"(1) No remedies under this section shall be awarded in any civil action brought under this title for infringement of an exclusive right in a work created on or after January 1, 2002, if a State or State

instrumentality is or was at any time the legal or beneficial owner of such right, except upon proof that—

"(A) on or before the date the infringe-4 ment commenced or January 1, 2004, which-5 6 ever is later, the State has waived its immunity, 7 under the eleventh amendment of the United States Constitution and under any other doc-8 9 trine of sovereign immunity, from suit in Federal court brought against the State or any of 10 11 its instrumentalities, for any infringement of in-12 tellectual property protected under Federal law; 13 and 14 "(B) such waiver was made in accordance 15 with the constitution and laws of the State, and 16 remains effective.

17 "(2) The limitation on remedies under para18 graph (1) shall not apply with respect to an exclu19 sive right if—

20 "(A) the limitation would materially and 21 adversely affect a legitimate contract-based ex22 pectation in existence before January 1, 2002; 23 or

24 "(B) the party seeking remedies was a25 bona fide purchaser for value of the exclusive

1 right, and, at the time of the purchase, did not 2 know and was reasonably without cause to be-3 lieve that a State or State instrumentality was 4 once the legal or beneficial owner of the right. "(3) The limitation on remedies under para-5 6 graph (1) may be raised at any point in a pro-7 ceeding, through the conclusion of the action. If 8 raised before January 1, 2004, the court may stay 9 the proceeding for a reasonable time, but not later 10 than January 1, 2004, to afford the State an oppor-11 tunity to waive its immunity as provided in para-12 graph (1).".

22	"(B) the party seeking remedies was a
23	bona fide purchaser for value of the right, and,

2	legal or beneficial owner of the right.
3	"(3) The limitation on remedies under para-
4	graph (1) may be raised at any point in a pro-
5	ceeding, through the conclusion of the action. If
6	raised before January 1, 2004, the court may stay
7	the proceeding for a reasonable time, but not later
