TRULY HONOR OUR VETERANS

(Mr. DEFAZIO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, Veterans Day, November 11, 150,000 veterans will have waited 6 months or longer for appointments for medical care; 14,000 veterans have been waiting 15 months or longer for expedited disability claims; 560,000 disabled veterans will be forced to pay the disabled veterans tax. It does not have to be this way. But we are confronted with the most anti-veteran, anti-veteran administration in Congress in history.

The President refused to spend $275 million in emergency money. He cut off veterans' health care for 160,000 Category 8 veterans. Although there are 373 cosponsors to do away with the disability tax, the President has threatened to veto the bill if we do away with the veterans' disability tax, and Republican leaders refuse to bring up that bill here in the House.

It would be better to celebrate Veterans Day with actions that delivered on our promises to veterans than laudatory words; but I fear that we will just hear words and not see actions from this Congress and this administration.

INTELLIGENCE COMMITTEES ARE A CAMPAIGN-FREE ZONE

(Mr. GREEN of Wisconsin asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GREEN of Wisconsin. Mr. Speaker, not so long ago, Democratic leaders said before the cameras, actually yelled before the cameras, that this war should not be politicized.

This week we learned just how empty and how hypocritical those words were. Among other things, we learned of a Democratic staff memo from a Senate Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence describing a plan to use intelligence information about the war for political points during a Presidential campaign.

Mr. Speaker, we have men and women in uniform in harm's way. We have families back here who desperately miss them and fear for their safety and now we have this memo.

Not everything is a political game. Not everything should be campaign fodder. Of all our committees, our intelligence committees should be campaign-free zones. I believe the American people deserve better, and I know our troops deserve better.

ACKNOWLEDGING AMERICA'S PAIN

(Mr. EMANUEL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. EMANUEL. Mr. Speaker, I want to complement the President for traveling to southern California to comfort the families and the communities of the San Diego area.

While Americans in southern California suffer great losses and begin the struggle to rebuild, it is essential that our President which he did demonstrate the commitment of his administration and the entire Nation to helping them legal.

An article in the Chicago Tribune discusses today, families across the country are working to rebuild their lives after burying a son or daughter who died in combat. The President rightly goes to California to comfort a family that has lost a home. Why is he not coming to Illinois to comfort a family who has lost a son?

The President in San Diego lifted the spirits of an entire community as they reassembled their lives. That same compassion needs to be shared with the parents who are burying their children. They deserve to know that the growing criticism of the situation in Iraq will not keep the President from acknowledging their individual losses.

This is all the more important on today when the President signs the $87 billion to help Iraq rebuild their nation. We cannot pass by the families who have lost and have personal pain. They are all part of America's family.

CELEBRATING AMERICAN VETERANS

(Mr. WILSON of South Carolina asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Mr. Speaker, on Tuesday, November 11, America will celebrate the 50th anniversary of Veterans Day, a day to honor our men and women who have fought to preserve freedom and liberty for generations to come.

Veterans Day was formerly known as Armistice Day in recognition of the end of World War I, until President Dwight D. Eisenhower changed the name of the holiday to include all veterans in 1954. This year, we will honor the 25 million living veterans who have fought and the more than 1 million men and women who have died to ensure freedom and bring about peace in conflicts, including World War II, the Korean War, Vietnam, the Gulf War and today's war on terrorism. This will be an especially solemn occasion as our current military are engaged in a fight for democracy in Iraq, a critical battle in the war on terrorism that we will win, to protect the American people from terrorists.

Since America was attacked on September 11, America has been awakened to a greater understanding and appreciation for the freedoms we enjoy here in our great Nation. This Veterans Day is an opportunity to thank those who are responsible for protecting our way of life and have joined in struggles around the world in defense of liberty. In conclusion, God bless our troops.

HONORING ARMY MASTER SERGEANT TONY PRYOR

(Ms. HOOLEY of Oregon asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. HOOLEY of Oregon. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the valiant efforts of Army Master Sergeant Tony Pryor, who recently received the Silver Star, the Nation's third highest military decoration, for his heroism which saved the lives of his fellow Special Forces team members.

The son of a logger from Toledo, Oregon, Tony Pryor has often been described as a fierce competitor and the epitome of a warrior. He put these skills to work last year when he single-handedly neutralized four al Qaeda soldiers while raiding a compound in Afghanistan. In doing so, he undoubtedly saved the lives of his fellow team members involved in the mission.

In his 14 years of service with the Special Forces, Master Sergeant Pryor has been on missions in Haiti, Somalia, Kuwait, and Iraq among other places.

I want to thank Master Sergeant Pryor for his heroic efforts and congratulate him on his award. He makes all of us proud. I feel safe at night knowing that he and others like him are defending this great Nation.

TRANSPORTATION WASTE WATCHER

(Mr. BURGESS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, this morning I wanted to stand and call for increased efficiency in our Federal Government. Our obligation here in the House is to protect precious dollars taken from the taxpayer by streamlining and improving our Federal Government. Specifically, I believe there is need for increased efficiency in the U.S. Department of Transportation.

Savings in programs such as Federal Transit Administration programs will mean more money to invest for our country's transportation infrastructure.

This past March, I met with Transportation Inspector General Kenneth Mead to discuss business practices of the agency and how Congress can better facilitate saving money in relation to transportation spending. In July, the committee held a hearing and identified several ways to enhance efficiency.

One way to trim excess and expedite construction on transportation projects is by granting more authority to State Departments of Transportation to deliver transportation and deliver those corridors faster.
