PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. GREEN of Wisconsin. Mr. Speaker, I was absent from Washington on Tuesday, September 19, 2006. As a result, I was not recorded for rollcall votes Nos. 451, 452, and 453. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on rollcall Nos. 451, 452, and 453.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE HONORABLE SHELLEY BERKLEY, MEMBER OF CONGRESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Honorable SHELLEY BERKLEY, Member of Congress:

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES,

Hon. J. DENNIS HASTERT,
 Speaker, House of Representatives,
 Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: This is to notify you formally, pursuant to Rule VIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, that I have been served with a subpoena for testimony issued by the U.S. Court of Federal Claims.

After consultation with the Office of General Counsel, I have determined that compliance with the subpoena is inconsistent with the precedents and privileges of the House.

Sincerely,

SHELLEY BERKLEY,
 Member of Congress.

REPORT ON RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 4844, FEDERAL ELECTION INTEGRITY ACT OF 2006

Mrs. CAPITO, from the Committee on Rules, submitted a privileged report

(Rept. No. 109-670) on the resolution (H. Res. 1015) providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 4844) to amend the National Voter Registration Act of 1993 to require any individual who desires to register or re-register to vote in an election for Federal office to provide the appropriate State election official with proof that the individual is a citizen of the United States to prevent fraud in Federal elections, and for other purposes, which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.

SECURE BORDERS

(Mr. PRICE of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. Madam Speaker, this week we will consider legislation that the American people have made clear must be addressed to solve the illegal immigration crisis in our country. For too long, the security and well-being of our Nation has been compromised by open and porous borders.

After months of field hearings and listening to our constituents' concerns, it is clear that Americans from Savannah to Seattle and from San Diego to Syracuse demand tighter border security and stronger immigration laws. Last week, we passed the Secure Fence Act to tackle the problem of illegal aliens coming across the border, and three bills will be brought to the floor this week to ensure that our law enforcement agencies have the tools needed to further deal with this crisis. I call on all of my colleagues here and in the Senate to pass these critical pieces of legislation.

Madam Speaker, no longer can we allow an attitude of indifference toward the sovereignty of our borders. We should pass these bills and speak loudly to those wishing to break our laws that their actions will no longer be tolerated by the United States.

SPECIAL ORDERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 4, 2005, and under a previous order of the House, the following Members will be recognized for 5 minutes each.

IRAQ WAR

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Washington (Mr. McDERMOTT) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Madam Speaker, the Iraq war is doing badly, and the President would like the American people to think about something else. With less than 2 months until the midterm elections, the Republicans suddenly fear the democracy they claim to be spreading.

A commentary in today's Asia Times sums it up. The article is entitled,
