

military spending should be scrutinized to find meaningful reductions in outdated or unworkable programs. Anyone who denies the Defense Department is one of the largest sources of waste, fraud and abuse in the federal government probably thinks the Pentagon has four sides.

It's clear that Republicans are not serious about the deficit. If they were, waste, fraud and abuse at the Pentagon would be as much of a focus as anywhere else in the budget. But rather than holding the line on spending, the Majority is actually feeding the beast. And they're playing political games with this continuing resolution rather working with the president to avert a government shutdown. It's not fiscally responsible or morally responsible, so I will vote no on the bill.

HONORING FORMER U.S. SENATOR AND AMERICAN WAR HERO, MAX CLELAND

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 8, 2011

Mr. INSLEE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor Max Cleland, my friend, former U.S. Senator and an American war hero. Today marks the 43rd Anniversary of the Battle of Khe Sanh. It was there that at the age of 25, he earned the Silver Star and the Bronze Star for valorous action in combat serving America as a U.S. Army Captain in Vietnam.

On April 8, with a month left in his tour, Captain Cleland was ordered to set up a radio relay station on a nearby hill. A helicopter flew him and two soldiers to the treeless top of Hill 471, east of Khe Sanh. When the helicopter landed, Cleland jumped out and was accidentally struck by a grenade blast. The explosion slammed him backward, shredding both his legs and one arm. Due to the severity of his injuries, doctors amputated both of Cleland's legs above the knee and his right forearm.

Max Cleland only became stronger after this devastating experience, and dedicated himself to a life of public service as a United States Senator where he worked to significantly improve the lives of Veterans returning from war. In these ways, he lived in the essence of one of his favorite quotes from Ernest Hemingway "The world breaks everyone, and afterward, many are strong at the broken places."

Max, we are inspired by your patriotism, spirit, and your great achievements to our nation. We only hope that our nation can follow your example and grow stronger at all the broken places.

HONORING PROVIDENCE MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. BISHOP of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Providence Missionary Baptist Church in Thomasville, Georgia, which is celebrating its 104th anniversary on April 10, 2011.

The Providence Missionary Baptist Church was born out of a spiritual need in the Thomasville community. In response to a divine revelation from God, the late Mother Mary Lousia Williams along with other believers in Jesus Christ proceeded to "build a house" for the Lord. Providence began as a prayer house, where it was known as the Providence of God.

Reverend Henry Fennell was the first pastor of Providence of God who served from 1907-1908. He was succeeded by Reverend Robert Raymond who served from 1908-1909. Under Reverend Raymond's leadership, the organizational structure of the church grew from a prayer house into a missionary Baptist church. After Reverend Raymond's superior leadership, Providence Missionary Baptist church has been blessed to have several dynamic pastors including Reverend Frank Martin, Reverend Arthur J. Atkinson, Reverend Eddie S. Sheffield, Reverend James Ceasar Vaughn, Jr., and Rev. Dr. Emory C. Virgil.

For the last 104 years, Providence Missionary Baptist Church has expanded its ministry in the Thomasville community. The church broke ground on a new structure in 1957 and moved into the new location on Magnolia Street a year later. When the new sanctuary opened, the members of the church marched from the site of the old church to the new location and Reverend Atkinson ordained nine Deacons.

Providence Missionary Baptist Church furthered its legacy of giving back to the community in 1980 when it helped establish the Providence Plaza, a low-income residential facility in Thomasville. Reverend Sheffield helped secure funding for the building through a Community Development Block Grant, and relied on the leadership of the late Deacon Elijah Hill, Jr. Deacon Hill had a proven track record for rehabilitating condemned or abandoned houses, turning them into livable and affordable dwellings for individuals needing low-income housing.

The Providence Plaza is a living testimony that the church is most capable of providing shelter for the homeless. In Matthew 11:28, Jesus gave an instruction to the church when he said: "come unto me all you ye that labour and are heavy laden and I will give you rest."

The church has lived up to its vision statement, "To glorify God, to magnify Christ, and to help somebody" for the last 104 years, The Thomasville community is a better place because of Providence Baptist Church, and on the occasion of its 104th anniversary, it gives me great honor to recognize the church for all its efforts. I thank the church and its congregation for all their many years of service. I hope Providence Missionary Baptist Church will continue to spread the word of God and continue serving the Thomasville community for many years to come. To God be the glory!
