

present, I would have voted “yea” on rollcall No. 144.

Ms. KAPTUR. Mr. Speaker, during rollcall vote No. 144 on H.R. 1093, I mistakenly recorded my vote as “no” when I should have voted “yes”.

Mr. SCHIFF. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably detained. Had I been present, I would have voted “yea” on rollcall No. 144.

Ms. WEXTON. Mr. Speaker, I regret that I was not able to be present for rollcall No. 144, the motion to suspend the rules and pass H.R. 1093. Had I been present, I would have voted “yea” on rollcall No. 144.

Pat was a pioneer for women’s rights, and she was the first woman ever elected to represent the State of Colorado in the U.S. House. For 24 years, she fought tirelessly in this Chamber to expand the rights of women, families, and children across this country.

She cofounded the Congressional Women’s Caucus, and she was the first woman ever selected to serve on the House Armed Services Committee. She championed legislation to protect pregnant workers and women in the military, and she was the driving force behind the Family and Medical Leave Act.

What made Pat so unique, though, wasn’t just the brilliance that she had or her passion for public service. It was her razor-sharp wit.

Pat could trade barbs with anybody at a moment’s notice on any subject. She could disarm her most harsh critics with humor and grace, and she had
