

How ridiculous to keep raising the prices on everything.
The people are always the ones who end up paying for everything.
Big businesses continue to dodge everything and the burden is always
Placed on the individual taxpayer.
Had to comment on this because it just keeps getting frustrating to
The hard working individual of this country.