

As a musician, fan, collector, educator, researcher, and archivist, I believe that art, culture, and creativity would be best served by bringing pre-1972 recordings under federal law.