PRIVACY DISCLAIMER

Disclaimer on the processing of personal data
(The General Data Protection Regulation (EU) n. 679/2016 – Art. 13)

Last update: 20th October 2018

This text describes, in a simple and clear way, the commitment we take towards our users in guaranteeing and preserving the security of personal data and its privacy.

This document refers to the "My Password", "My Cards" and "My Parking" application and its variants, "Pro", "Lite" or "Premium" (from now on "applications", "the application").

Principles:

The company eRaff.it (from this moment on "we", "the company", "the company", "the app", "the developer) specifies that no data entered in the application is saved on its own servers, databases or sent to third parties except for the e-mail address.

The e-mail address is saved on our servers and is necessary for restoring the accounts, this data is not sent to third parties.

Data protection:

The data is saved on your device or in the Apple Cloud (now "iCloud") depending on the service chosen or the application used.

Access to these data is unique, they are encrypted with secure access keys linked to the user's account. No one other than the user has the possibility to view, change this type of data.

Statistics:

During the use of the application, statistical data is acquired and saved to guarantee maintenance and an increasing use of services.

This data can be the client's IP address, IP location, the country, the device model, the language used, the version of the application and the operating system (OS).
