Using Citrix desktop for remote working

Synchronising Internet Explorer Favourites

When you first log onto the upgraded Citrix, your profile is created with the Internet Explorer favourites you (may) have created on your networked PC in the office. To keep this up to date, functionality has been introduced to allow you to synchronise your Internet Explorer Favourites from your networked PC to Citrix, and visa versa...

Whichever option is required