Resource guide

A microscopic view of plant cells, showing cell walls and chloroplasts, with a blue overlay. The cells are arranged in a grid-like pattern, and the chloroplasts are visible as small, green, oval structures within the cells. The blue overlay is a semi-transparent rectangle that covers the central part of the image, containing text.

We are excited that you chose Hogan Lovells as your trusted legal advisor.

We have outlined where to find our latest resources and information to help you and your company stay ahead of the curve. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the lawyer you work with.

Example offering

Master Drug Compliance Program

A comprehensive set of 45 compliance policy templates with dedicated support from our lawyers included to help bespoke your documents.

Our U.S. pharmaceutical lawyers have created this product to provide pharmaceutical and biotech companies with a comprehensive set of compliance policies that are always kept up-to-date. Use these policies to prepare your compliance function for the launch of a drug product while tailoring the policies to your specific risk tolerance, with or without additional help from our lawyers.

Example offering

Medical Device HIPAA Compliance Toolkit

We simplify HIPAA compliance and provide documentation to help your company implement a HIPAA compliance program.

Medical device companies can be subject to HIPAA if they conduct certain electronic transactions or if they engage in certain activities or functions involving protected health information. Determining whether and how HIPAA applies can be challenging, but we simplify this process.

Our compliance toolkit questionnaire will help you assess the extent to which HIPAA applies to your company and then, based on your responses to the questionnaire, we provide a set of policies and other documentation to help your company establish a HIPAA compliance program.
