

Workforce Platform

Persistent's Workforce Platform enables project managers to effectively manage various client projects. It also is an effective platform to manage allocation/deallocation of resources across projects.

The platform also enables users to have a deep insight in to the current state of each project and also provides an effective way to track project timelines and releases.

Workforce Platform
Automate, manage and have in-depth insights of clients, projects, resources and the allocation or deallocation of resources across all projects.
