- prepare for meetings by reviewing the materials provided in advance and seeking clarification, where necessary, for additional information in order to fully participate in Board deliberations;
- ensure they have sufficient time to devote to their responsibilities as a Director;
- act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Bank, and with the diligence and care of a reasonably prudent person;
- use their discretion in the execution of their responsibilities as they deem appropriate, subject to the constraints imposed by law;
- maintain an equity investment in the Bank in accordance with the Bank's equity ownership requirements for Directors;
- review and approve the Bank's strategic direction and business plan and regularly compare the financial performance and key business lines to the plan;
- understand the risks attendant to the Bank's business model and how they relate to the Bank's strategy and Enterprise Risk Appetite Framework;
- oversee the promotion and maintenance of a sound risk culture and risk driven values throughout the Bank;
- continuously advance their knowledge of the Bank's business and relevant trends and developments affecting the Bank, so to make a meaningful contribution to the Board's meetings and activities;
- have ultimate responsibility for the management of the Bank's capital;
- understand the regulatory environment within which the Bank and its subsidiaries operate;
- ensure personal compliance with the Corporate Governance Policies and the Scotiabank Code of Conduct, including the Directors' Addendum, and any other applicable supplementary guidelines;
- prevent personal interests from conflicting with or appearing to conflict with, the interests of the Bank and promptly disclosing any such conflicts should they arise;
- oversee the management of the Bank;
- review and approve the Bank's internal controls and operating frameworks/policies and procedures;
- review and approve any transactions outside the normal course of business;
- review and confirm the appointments of the President and Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers of the Bank;
- consider and approve all matters posing a significant impact on stakeholders of the Bank; and

- maintain the confidentiality of all Bank information not otherwise disclosed to the public and all matters discussed by the Board.
