EXPERIENCE

Megan Baier is a partner at Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she focuses on corporate and securities law, including general corporate representation, public offerings, and venture capital financings within the technology, digital health, and life sciences sectors. She has assisted with matters ranging from formation and early-stage venture financing to listings of publicly traded securities on U.S. exchanges. She also has extensive experience representing leading investment banks and corporate issuers in connection with public offerings. Megan also has considerable experience counseling publicly held companies on general corporate representation, SEC compliance, disclosure matters, and complex securities law issues.

Megan currently serves as a member of the firm's board of directors.

Prior to joining Wilson Sonsini, Megan practiced law at Ropes & Gray and Skadden Arps Slate Meagher & Flom in New York and Chicago.
