

THE COUNCIL OF THE FEDERATION
LITERACY AWARD

2024

NEW BRUNSWICK'S
CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Council of the Federation was created in 2003 by Canada's Premiers because they believed it was important for provinces and territories to be leaders in matters that are important to all Canadians. In 2004, the Council of the Federation agreed to recognize achievements in literacy in every province and territory through the Council of the Federation Literacy Award. This award is presented annually in each province and territory. In recognition of its status as Canada's only officially bilingual province, New Brunswick presents the award to recognize achievement in the province's anglophone and francophone communities.

A Message from the Premier

The Government of New Brunswick is proud to support the improvement of literacy levels in the province and across the country by recognizing outstanding achievement, innovative practice, and excellence in literacy education and training.

We know that literacy is essential to good jobs, strong families, and advancing prosperity for New Brunswickers. It is imperative that we encourage the development of foundational literacy skills early on so that our children can be equipped with the skills they need to be successful in the future, and support those who are improving their literacy skills as adults.

New Brunswick continues to invest in initiatives that rely on the talent and expertise of Adult Literacy Educators, including Community Adult Learning Program and Workplace Essential Skills training. These initiatives serve over 2,000 adult learners each year in both English-speaking and French-speaking communities across the province. We are grateful to those who have continued to provide these services.

As a province, we continue to advocate for literacy growth and development for all New Brunswickers. We have adopted evidence-based curriculum and assessments and will continue to support learners of all ages as they develop and improve their literacy skills.

I am pleased to announce that nominations are now open for the New Brunswick 2024 Council of the Federation Literacy Award.

I strongly encourage you to recognize and nominate people in your community who have demonstrated leadership in the field of literacy by supporting the development of literacy skills resulting in an improved quality of life for New Brunswickers.

Blaine M. Higgs

Premier

How to Make a Nomination

Nominations are invited for individuals who have demonstrated leadership in the field of literacy in New Brunswick. New Brunswick's 2024 nominations will highlight individuals who have had a positive impact on their communities by helping fellow New Brunswickers develop their literacy skills.

You can self-nominate or nominate an individual in your community or region who:

- resides in New Brunswick;
- consents to his/her nomination;
- has had a positive impact on their community by helping people develop their literacy skills;
- has inspired others; and
- has demonstrated exceptional commitment to literacy development by giving back to the community

In addition to a monetary prize of $150 and a donation of $150 to a New Brunswick non-profit literacy organization (chosen by the recipient's nominator or self-nominated nominee), the award recipient will receive a Council of the Federation Literacy Award medallion and certificate.
